

Plasma Cutter Assistant

Raveling Companies is expanding our team! We are seeking a Plasma Table Associate who will be responsible for programming and setting up, as well as selecting raw material, loading and unloading of table by crane or forklift. Applicant must have good organization skills and detail-oriented reading prints and measurements. Identifying different grades of material is also a must.

Work on additional equipment or tasks outside the job description as directed. Other duties may include: roll, bevel, and/or grind metal. Material Handling that includes unloading delivery trucks. Assist in raw material inventory and ordering.

Frequent lifting, bending, stooping, squatting, pushing and pulling can be expected. Long periods of standing and walking may also be expected in this position. Must be able to work in varying temperature and temperature changes.

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities:

- High School Diploma or GED
- Work involves high degree of attention to detail.
- Previous plasma burn table experience is encouraged but not required for the right candidate.
- Table familiarity with welding tools and procedures with engineering blueprints and schematics.
- Ability to work with minimal supervision.
- Previous use of shop math and proficiency with a tape measure is required.
- Ability read blueprints, spreadsheets, drawings, sketches, bill of materials, ect.
- Able to handle several tasks at a time and team oriented.

Please email your resume and cover letter to info@ravelingcompanies.com